FOREWORD

I wish to thank the Federation of Art Societies for having given me the opportunity to serve such a fine and respected organization for the past three years as its president. I was very fortunate to have had such capable officers, committee chairpersons and volunteer workers.

Congratulations to the new officers of the Federation.
May we continue to function with efficiency and success.

I hope that those who view the show will enjoy the creations of our area artists, and since many works are for sale, will honor those artists with purchases.

To all the delegates and volunteer workers, my sincere thanks.
